Message from the Executive Director

Confidence and Hope for the Future

Iowans banded together in 2009 to help many families recover from the unprecedented natural disasters that paralyzed communities across the state. This, coupled with continued instability in the credit markets, declining state revenues, and signs of recession all increased demand for resources to help Iowa families pay college expenses.

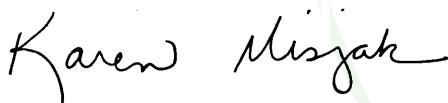

Though the challenges were many, the Iowa College Student Aid Commission (Iowa College Aid) remained committed to helping Iowa students make higher education possible. While signs of hope and optimism surfaced for many Iowans as they continued to rebuild their homes and lives with federal disaster relief funding, Iowa College Aid ensured that the financial impact of these disasters did not pose a barrier to higher education for students by utilizing funds from a special scholarship reserve fund to provide 382 students with Iowa Disaster Relief Grants. These one-time awards averaging $1,164 provided relief to families who were already traumatized by natural disasters.

In FY 2009, enrollment at Iowa colleges and universities increased nearly 12% from the previous year; a clear sign of the economic downturn facing both the nation and the state of Iowa. Despite these challenges, Iowa College Aid helped over 26,900 students defray the costs of a higher education with state-funded resources totaling nearly $68.5 million. Iowa College Aid also reduced the cost of borrowing for student and parent loan borrowers in FY 2009 by paying the required federal default fee on student loans it guaranteed, a savings of over $7.2 million.

To ensure future generations of Iowan's are prepared to enter and succeed in postsecondary education, Iowa College Aid provided a web-based career information system free of charge to Iowa middle and high schools. Research indicates that students who have taken rigorous programs of study in high school are more likely to remain on track to completing a college degree than students who did not complete a core curriculum¹. The system helps students explore education and career opportunities, match their interests, values, and skills with employment and create high school course plans that support their goals. In FY 2009, over 99,000 students created new accounts on the system. In addition, Iowa College Aid received federal funding of $16.8 million to administer the Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs (GEAR UP) in Iowa. GEAR UP Iowa serves more than 5,700 Iowa students and their families at 31 Iowa schools meeting federal low-income guidelines. In FY 2009, the first year of the six-year grant, GEAR UP Iowa allocated over $440,000 directly to Iowa middle schools to enhance curriculum programs, increase academic tutoring opportunities, and secure 21st century technology in the classroom.

The many accomplishments outlined in this report reflect our dedication to helping Iowans explore and finance educational opportunities beyond high school. While unsettled financial and credit markets and proposed legislation to reform the federal student loan program have the future of the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP) somewhat uncertain, Iowa College Aid is dedicated to providing Iowa students and families with the resources they need to plan, prepare and pay for college for years to come.

Sincerely,

Karen Misjak
Executive Director

Who We Are

In 1963, the Iowa General Assembly created the Iowa College Student Aid Commission as a state agency to administer state-funded financial aid programs and to help Iowa families plan, prepare and pay for college. In 1978, the Iowa College Student Aid Commission assumed the role of state-designated student loan guarantor to ensure Iowans access to low-cost student loans. Today, the Iowa College Student Aid Commission administers state-funded financial aid programs, guarantees federal student loans, administers federal grant programs, provides regulatory guidance, serves as a higher education research resource, provides free access and support of the state-designated career information system, and distributes information to help families plan, prepare and pay for college.

A board of Commissioners governs the operation of Iowa College Aid. Commissioners are appointed by the Governor to serve four-year terms. How We Help Families Pay for College

Iowa College Aid connects students and families to the essential resources and services needed to go to college.

We are available every step of the way to help students plan, prepare, and pay for college. On behalf of the State of Iowa and the General Assembly, we support students and families with scholarships, grants, loan forgiveness, work-study opportunities, student loan guarantees, informational resources and a range of services to help students prepare for college as well as assist student loan borrowers through the repayment process after leaving college.

State-Funded Programs

An investment of nearly $68.5 million made it possible for 26,907 awards in the forms of state-funded grants, loan forgiveness or work-study opportunities to be given to students to pursue degrees at Iowa's colleges and universities in FY 09. Iowa-funded programs provide access and choice to students pursuing postsecondary education opportunities beyond high school.

Scholarship and Grant Reserve Fund

Iowa College Aid administers the Scholarship and Grant Reserve Fund authorized in Iowa Code Section 261.20. Iowa Code requires that the Reserve Fund be used "to alleviate a current fiscal year shortfall in appropriations for scholarship or tuition grant programs that have the same nature as the programs for which the monies were originally appropriated." Monies in this fund do not revert to the State unless the amount exceeds the maximum allowed balance of 1 percent of the funds appropriated for the Iowa Tuition Grant and Iowa Vocational-Technical Tuition Grant Programs.

Reserve Fund Activity Details:

Balance on July 1, 2008:	$557,412
Balance on June 30, 2009:	$514,180

Iowa Tuition Grants

The Iowa Tuition Grant Program provides grant assistance of up to $4,000 to eligible students attending Iowa's private colleges and universities. Iowa Tuition Grants were provided to 17,239 students in FY 09.  Number of recipients at for profit Institutions: 2,403; average award $2,369.
Number of recipients at not-for-profit institutions: 14,836; average award $3,218.

In FY 09, an appropriation of $995,000 provided 961 students with awards averaging $1,035.

*Gross Guarantees for Federal Stafford (subsidized and unsubsidized) Federal PLUS and Federal Grad PLUS loan volume.

Iowa College Aid has reduced the cost of borrowing for Iowa students and parents by waiving fees and paying the required one-percent Federal Default Fee on behalf of its borrowers. The Higher Education Reconciliation Act of 2005 (HERA) requires payment of the Federal Default Fee for all loans guaranteed on or after July 1, 2006. Payment of this fee has saved borrowers over $17.5 million over the last three years. Prior to July 1, 2006, Iowa College Aid waived the one-percent guarantee fee allowed to help guaranty agencies cover costs associated with insuring student and parent loans.

How We Help Prepare Students for the Future

College and Career Planning

In order to succeed in college, Iowans must be academically prepared for the demands of a postsecondary education. Research indicates that students who have taken rigorous programs of study in high school are more likely to remain on track to completing a college degree than students who have not completed a core curriculum¹. That means that career and college planning must start early – before students get to high school.

Through a partnership with the Iowa Department of Education, Iowa College Aid provides a web-based, state-designated career information system to all Iowa middle and high schools free of charge. The system helps students prepare for the future with education and career exploration tools that connect student interests and skills to occupations, as well as the education or training necessary to fulfill their career goals.

In addition, the career information system helps schools meet Iowa Code Section 279.61 requirements that all Iowa students create a career plan in grade 8, as well as complete specific career planning components in grades 8-12. Because the system is web-based, it allows students to build course plans, take interest surveys and create resumes that can be saved to their online portfolios. In FY 09, over 99,100 new users utilized the system, a 27% increase from FY 08.

- Kirkwood Community College Administrator

"I have already been on the IHaveaPlanIowa.gov website and am impressed with what your state is doing. Finding ways to help kids to WANT to plan for their futures is a significant step. Requiring them to take certain steps, I think is wise! Thank you."

Creating a College-Going Culture in Iowa

Iowa College Aid is the administrator of a $16.8 million, six-year, federal Gaining Early Awareness & Readiness for Undergraduate Programs (GEAR UP) grant for the State of Iowa. GEAR UP Iowa's mission is to significantly increase the number of low-income students prepared to enter and succeed in postsecondary education.

The GEAR UP Iowa program kicked off in FY 09 and serves more than 5,700 low-income and minority students and their families at 31 Iowa schools. Iowa schools with over fifty percent of their student population on free and/or reduced lunch were selected to participate in GEAR UP Iowa. The program will follow students at those schools who started 7th grade during the 2008-2009 academic year through high school graduation. GEAR UP Iowa students who fulfill the program and set education goals will be eligible for a GEAR UP Iowa scholarship to use for postsecondary education costs.

GEAR UP Iowa allocated over $440,000 directly to Iowa middle schools in FY 09. Across the state, GEAR UP Iowa students benefit from program services such as college visits, 21st century technology in the classroom, enhanced curriculum programs, and increased academic tutoring opportunities.

Storm Lake Middle School has had the wonderful opportunity to be a part of GEAR UP Iowa this past year. As always, we are constantly looking for ways to improve the lives of our students. One way we saw to do this was through a program called AVID (Achievement Via Individual Determination).

AVID takes an approach to at-risk learners through intensive professional development for the teachers and creating a community of learning within the group of at-risk learners. The really great thing about this program is that it not only affects the at-risk students, but it also permeates the system of note-taking and learning strategies throughout the school creating a wider systemic approach.

Since its inception towards the end of the 2008-2009 school year, we have already seen some fantastic results. Just within the at-risk group of 25 struggling learners we are targeting, 21 of them are now on the honor roll according to the most recent report card sent out this year. Of course, I cannot share names, but this data is extractable and will be reported in this year's Annual Performance Report.

On behalf of the entire Storm Lake Middle School, thank you for the funding and the opportunity to create this positive impact in our most struggling students.

-Principal Diane Jones, Storm Lake Middle School

As a student loan guaranty agency, Iowa College Aid strives to connect student loan borrowers with the information and resources they need to successfully repay their student loans. However, there are times when borrowers have difficulty in keeping up with their repayment obligations. Iowa College Aid works hard to get those borrowers back on track through default prevention and aversion. If a borrower does default on his or her student loan, Iowa College Aid remains dedicated to working with the defaulted borrower to find the best solution to resolve the default.

Default Prevention

Iowa College Aid is committed to helping borrowers succeed with the repayment of their student loans, and offers the following services and programs to connect with borrowers early in the loan process:

- College & University Services

Iowa College Aid provides a comprehensive approach to default prevention by offering a wide array of products and services to help colleges and universities work with their student loan borrowers to reduce student loan delinquency and default.

Iowa College Aid representatives help college and universities develop customized default prevention plans that include unique activities, techniques and tools that aim to keep targeted groups of students on track. For borrowers who have already left campus, Iowa College Aid provides college and university staff with specialized reports and tools, as well as call and letter campaigns, to assist in communicating repayment options with borrowers to help them avoid default.

- Borrower Referral Program

The Borrower Referral Program enables colleges and universities to refer at-risk students to Iowa College Aid for additional debt management and repayment assistance. The goal of the program is to encourage students to complete their education, borrow responsibly, and successfully manage financial obligations after leaving college. In FY 09, Iowa College Aid received approximately 2,150 borrower referrals.

- Student Assistant Program

Iowa College Aid provided 18 eligible colleges and universities with a $3,000 grant in FY 09 to fund 20 student assistants. The student assistants enhance campus awareness of their services through project ideas such as campus newsletters, debt management flyers, and financial literacy workshops.

- Counseling and Outreach Materials

In FY 09, Iowa College Aid received 35,848 default aversion requests for loans totaling approximately $378 million. Of those delinquent loans, 80.8% were brought current. This is an increase of more than $30 million from FY 08.

Collections

In FY 09, Iowa College Aid recouped nearly $52 million on behalf of taxpayers through its collection strategies that included recoveries made through third-party collection services, in-house collection efforts, administrative wage garnishment, state and federal offsets, and loan consolidation. Collections on defaulted student loans increased 32.55% in FY 09.

Loan Rehabilitation

Loan rehabilitation is a strategy that offers favorable outcomes to all parties involved in student loan financing, especially the borrower. After the borrower qualifies to rehabilitate a defaulted loan, Iowa College Aid sells the loan to an eligible lender. Once the rehabilitation sale is complete and collection costs are reduced, the borrower's loan is removed from default status and the information reported by Iowa College Aid regarding the defaulted student loan is removed from credit bureau reports. Additionally, the borrower may be eligible for deferment or forbearance privileges, and may regain eligibility for additional federal student financial aid.

In FY 09, Iowa College Aid helped 1,432 borrowers rehabilitate over $12 million in defaulted student loans. The number of rehabilitated borrowers increased by 8.73% over the previous year.
